One Snow Day is built into this calendar.

This calendar has 178 student days with one day built in for snow (178 students days plus the 1 snow day). If we do not use any snow days then our last day of school will actually be on Thursday, May 26th. It is my understanding that teacher contracts should have 188 days which include:

5 professional development days (including the one in Little Rock)
2 days for parent teacher conferences
3 work days

If you see any mistakes, please let us all know and then Sharon will be able to send it to Vernell for approval.

Thank you,
Marna
